

Library Board of Trustees – Glencoe Caucus Slate for the April 1, 2025 Consolidated Election

George Krafcisin

Mr. Krafcisin is slated for his second term on the Library Board. He is a 33-year resident of Glencoe. Following an extensive career in risk management and safety, Mr. Krafcisin has dedicated himself as a volunteer advisor to non-profit organizations of all kinds.

Nan Weiss-Ham

Ms. Weiss-Ham is slated for her second term on the Library Board. She is a 37-year resident of Glencoe and has volunteered extensively for local organizations - especially related to local public education. Ms. Weiss-Ham's professional career included 18 years of service to Glencoe School District 35.

Michael Pope

Mr. Pope is slated for his second term on the Library Board. He is a 54-year resident of Glencoe. He is also a board-level volunteer at the Newberry Library in Chicago. Mr. Pope retired in 2016 as trial lawyer and partner at a law firm and continued to work as an arbitrator and mediator.

Robert Kimble

Mr. Kimble is slated for his first term on the Library Board. He is a 28-year resident of Glencoe and a long time-active participant in Village of Glencoe governance, having previously served on the Parks Board. His professional background is in technology and sales.

