

Glencoe Park District Commissioners – Glencoe Caucus Slate for the April 1, 2025 Consolidated Election

Jaqueline Avitia-Guzman

Jacqueline Avitia-Guzman is a 9-year resident of Glencoe. She is a graduate of the University of Chicago Booth School of Business Administration. She has had a career in corporate finance and nonprofit development. She has experience in leadership positions in the Glencoe community and currently serves as the Treasurer of New Trier Education Foundation. Additionally, she is on the Board of the Glencoe Junior High project and also serves on the Women's Board of the Joffrey Ballet.

Gary Hazan

Gary Hazan is a 12-year resident of Glencoe. He has a degree in Recreational Management from the U of I. He is founder and President of Players Sports and Social Group is Chicagoland's leading adult sports social organizations, serving over 80,000 participants per year. Gary brings a wealth of germane experience in creating, managing and organizing sports and activities for adults. He was active in producing the Glencoe Grand prix and he served on the Watts Committee.

Nicole Reifman

Nicole Reifman is a 12-year resident of Glencoe. Nicole earned a degree in Mechanical Engineering and a law degree from the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign. She serves on the management committee of a prominent IP law firm while also serving on the Glencoe Park district local government efficiency committee, on the Glencoe ad-hoc golf clubhouse design committee, and on the Board of the Chicago Children's Choir. We are grateful that Nicole is willing to bring her management and leadership skills to continue serving our village.